

Game 3: Boss of the Moss - String Line

Game 3: Boss of the Moss - String Line

This exercise is designed to develop technique in a natural way. By hitting putts under a string-line line (bee line) or chalk line from 8-10ft you will be encouraged to improve your ability to aim the putter, find the middle of the putter face and control the path and face of the putter. All vital skills for successful putting.

Rules of the Game

Set a string/bee line behind a hole to its maximum length on a flat part of the green. Mark out a 10ft putt. The objective of this challenge is too see how many putts you can hole without missing. If you miss, you have to start again.

Keep a record of your personal bests in the table below.

Constraints

- In an effort to simulate pressure experienced on the course and in competition, you must hole 10 in a row and you only get 3 attempts at this on any given day.
- Use a breaking sloping putt. Set up string accordingly.
- Place a tee gate, 1ft in front of ball. Ball must pass through the gate.
- Change the length of the putt.
